

SPOOZ, INC. (SPZI), IS BACK IN BUSINESS!

CLEARWATER, FL, USA, June 30, 2021 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Spooz, Inc. (SPZI) ("Spooz" or the "Company") is pleased to announce that it has successfully filed the required documents with the Nevada Secretary of State's office and paid all fees in order to bring the Company back into good standing and current as of July 1, 2021.

The Company revived its relationship with Olde Monmouth Stock Transfer (NJ), the Company's original transfer agent, and the Spooz file is now current.

We also filed the proper documents with OTC Markets and should complete this process in their four to eight weeks processing period.

Spooz successfully reacquired the spooz.com web domain and web development work has commenced.

"I'd like to publicly express my appreciation for the Spooz team for accomplishing our corporate goals so professionally and expediently. From start to finish our team reached our July 1 goal in fewer than sixty days," stated Paul Strickland, the Spooz CEO.

This press release contains "forward-looking statements" within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995, which are subject to a number of risks and uncertainties, many of which are outside Spooz's control. These include but are not limited to the impact of competitors' products, services and pricing; product demand; market acceptance; new product development; reliance on key strategic alliances; the regulatory environment; fluctuations in operating results; and other risks which are detailed from time to time in the Company's filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission and/or OTC Markets. Spooz, its former Officers and Directors disclaim any obligation to update or alter its forward-looking statements whether as a result of new information, subsequent events or otherwise.
