

Vesta Property Services Donates Funds and Creates Champlain Towers Initiative

JACKSONVILLE, FL, UNITED STATES, June 29, 2021 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Vesta Property Services, a leader in Florida property management services, today announced a fundraising initiative for those affected by the Champlain Towers collapse in Surfside, FL. Through Vesta's 501(c)(3) not-for-profit organization Community Assistance Foundation (CAF), Vesta has begun accepting and appropriating funds to be disseminated with non-profit agencies in Surfside.

"What occurred at the Champlain Towers site was disastrous," said David Surface, CEO. "Our sympathies go out to everyone affected, and we are simply grateful to be able to assist in this capacity."

Among its missions, CAF intends to provide safety, dignity, comfort and assistance to communities and their members both directly and through service organizations which share our purpose. To donate, please visit the CAF website at WeAreCAF.org.
