

Exclusive Interview Released from Rolls Royce Plc, Speaker at SMI's 15th Annual Defence Export Conference

SMi Reports: Exclusive interview with Warren Bayliss at Rolls Royce Plc released ahead of 15th Annual Defence Exports Conference in London on the 15-6 September

LONDON, LONDON, UNITED KINGDOM, June 30, 2021

/EINPresswire.com/ -- Defence Exports Conference will return as the leading event for industry professionals and government officials from around the world, dealing with defence trade compliance on the 15th and 16th September 2021. Delegates will hear from government speakers and senior international trade compliance professionals from around the world on regulation controls including ITAR, EAR, ECR, Dual-Use and the Wassenaar Arrangement.

SMi Group caught up with Warren Bayliss, Global Head of Export Controls – Defence at Rolls Royce Plc to discuss current developments, priorities, and what he will be speaking on at the upcoming conference. Below is a snapshot of the interview:

Q. What is your role and what perspective do you bring to the conference?

A. "Warren Bayliss is the Global Head of Export Controls for Rolls-Royce's Defence Business. He leads a global team of 17 professionals and is responsible for all Defence Exports to over 100 customers around the world. Warren also oversees the internal compliance program for the Defence Business and provides expert advice, guidance, and support to the business on a range of Defence Export and licencing matters".

Q. Why do you think there is a clear need for a forum to discuss export controls, and what excites you most about this year's programme?

A. "It has never been a more important time to have professional international trade compliance and export control specialists to help protect Company interests and support international business development. No longer are such professionals regarded as business blockers and expensive overhead costs. They are now essential for Companies involved in Defence Exports!"

Warren will be presenting on: The Challenges of Managing Export-Controlled Technology for Today's Export Control Practitioners in an Ever Increasing and Sophisticated World of IT Solutions, covering:

- New IT developments: opportunities but also threats for compliance
- The challenge of regulating access to military controlled technology
- Balancing the need for pace and business flexibility versus compliance
- The risks and opportunities of new IT solutions, including offloading and outsourcing
- Automation in export controls

Defence Exports 2021 will feature 20+ expert speakers presenting at the conference on global trade compliance efficiency. Visit the website <http://www.defence-exports.com/PR3> to download the event brochure/agenda.
