

Accely Announces Appointment of Alok Bapna, Ex DXC/CSC Leader as President

Accely has appointed sales and new business development veteran Alok Bapna as its new President.

DUBAI, UAE, June 30, 2021 /EINPresswire.com/ -- At Accely, we will align his experience in the IT industry with our business goals to achieve new milestones. We look forward to utilizing his expertise in various areas so Accely can offer clients tailored and refined business solutions.

Over the years, Accely has been recognized as a trustworthy SAP consulting service for its innovative solutions. With a new leader in the senior management, we can enrich our core services such as IT, enterprise application support, and consulting services. As a result of Alok's diverse experience, Accely can expand into wholesale, retail, consumer goods, life sciences, engineering and construction, and manufacturing markets.

Alok Bapna

Alok's approach to leadership will enhance Accely's ability to solve business problems and deliver high-quality results. His ability to address and resolve issues in the IT industry is unmatched and valuable in our quest to strengthen our competitive edge.

"A reliable and skilled team is the essence of any organization. We recognized Alok's potential from his brilliance in the field, and soon he was a member of the Accely family. We hope that Alok and the team together can explore progressive solutions and lead to exponential growth for Accely", said Nilesh Shah, CEO, Accely.

Accely's ultimate goal is to empower small, mid-sized, and large organizations with flexible, innovative, and state-of-the-art solutions. Alok's knowledge can assist the team in increasing efficiency and successful use of SAP engagements. With our qualitative SAP consulting services, we anticipate that together we can enhance future results for many enterprises.
