MyCommunity.Today Inc., a privately held technology company focused on development of a community-centric, social interactive network and e-commerce platform launched its ground-breaking app today. This new app is specifically designed to help improve communities by providing trusted, hyper-local, news and interactive engagement with neighbors

For consumers, you'll have access to thousands of local merchants' mobile apps and just-in-time coupons. It truly is a world where YOU and your Community are the center of the universe.”

and businesses. The app's curated, timely, and relevant news and information capabilities helps community members become better informed about local issues and able to support their local business through the app's easy to use e-commerce feature.

“Our mission at MyCommunity.Today is to improve people's lives by increasing their engagement in the activities that enhance their local community. To that end, we provide daily, curated, hyper-local news and information and allow community members to engage and interact with each other on the platform to address pressing local issues. Furthermore, given that local businesses are a big part of any community, we added modern e-commerce capabilities to our platform to tackle the growing and unmanaged challenge of mobile users trying to find, to shop at and support local businesses,” said Sai Agahi, Co-Founder and CEO of MyCommunity.Today, Inc.

According to Agahi, “For consumers, in one app they'll have access to thousands of local merchants' mobile apps and just-in-time coupons and deals from those local merchants. One place, one login, one password, and one payment system to shop from thousands of local businesses. It truly is a world where YOU and your Community are the center of the universe.”

Sai continued, “For small local merchants that have suffered significantly due to COVID19 and have lost much of their sales to larger on-line businesses, we’re driven to help those merchants get their clients back by giving every local business its own mobile App and e-commerce platform”.

This ground-breaking work is being spearheaded from a strategic alliance with Local Marketing Solutions Group, Inc.

“Today, this launch of MyCommunity.Today’s unique Mobile App As A Service (MAAS) offering will provide a single market place for users to easily find local merchants and for businesses to truly enhance their brand awareness within their local communities, resulting in increased merchant sales and revenue. We look forward to seeing this breakthrough technology platform being adopted by all local merchants throughout the U.S.” said Al Croke, President and CEO of Local Marketing Solutions Group, Inc.
