Anthony Vex

Perception’, which will both be released on July 15th are the ultimate testament to Anthony Vex’s creativity and lyrical genius. The albums have undoubtedly been forged after a long journey through adversity and determination but are a blend of Anthony’s characteristic songwriting and storytelling abilities. Anthony’s music is unique to his audience not only due to the smooth tone of his voice that contrasts with what is usually stark emotion, but also because his lyricism finds many listeners relating to the meaning at the heart of the song very differently.

It is very rare for artists to showcase their creative abilities outside their music careers however Anthony Vex keeps proving that he is an outlier by introducing his very own clothing and apparel lines that he has designed. “Situations change but character shouldn’t” is the mantra Anthony Vex strongly sticks to and he tries to emulate his idols and inspirations in his own work. Most of the artists Anthony considers his idols have paved the way of being successful through independent hard work and struggle and these are the values Anthony Vex strongly believes in. His plans include continuing to release new music and setting up tours, while also recording podcast episodes for ‘Tinkin Out Loud’ that’s available on Spotify, Apple, Overcast and Anchor. He also aspires to continue designing new clothing and shoes for Cold North Apparels. The talented and multi-faceted Anthony Vex is also working on some short films and other cinema related projects which are to be released later in 2022.
