Bright Apps has worked across several industries to develop one of a kind custom business platforms. We have developed custom solutions for Education, Non-Profit, Start Ups, Blockchain, HR Recruiting & Staffing, Financial Management, Social Media and Live Streaming Platforms. The primary goal during the redesign was to update and re-focus on what we do best. Specifically, we wanted to focus on the extraordinary work the Bright Apps development team has done in AI and the creation of the Three Tier Approach to AI - Predictive, Reinforced Learning and Recognition & Tracking. The launch of Bright Apps Intelligent AI and Azoth Intelligent AI for the government has led to the Small Business Innovation Research (SBIR) contract with the U.S. Air Force.
