Harrmoniizing Sound and Vibration Since The Year 2000 !!!”

Company Motto

Previously known as Glenn 'Astro' Turner (legal name/nickname) while he toured with GSH and

Motown's Dynamic Superiors ('Shoe Shoe Shine') featuring 'Sweet' Toni Washington the openly gay lead singer a very courageous person on the forefront of the LGBTQ movement. He changed his name to HarrMonika Musik based on his love of the harmonica and as a response to the question that it seems is always asked-what kind of music do you play??? The answer-HarrMonika Musik !!! HarrMonika started his own indie label HarrMonika Musik and since the year 2000 has released several studio collections. Speaking of previously released music HarrMonika is also in the process of remastering all of his previously released music to take advantage of all the advances in digital technology and will be simultaneously be releasing new music over the course of the next year. HarrMonika can be heard on several of GSH biggest hits to include 'Storm Music' 'B-Movie' and 'Is That Jazz' (co-writer)

HarrMonika possesses a rare combination of a musical skill set with a technical skill set. "I could not afford to record in commercial studios nor I could I afford to pay pro musician fees and so I realized early on that I would have to learn both sides of the studio to include the basics of musicianship; rythm melody intonation harmony percussion and the technical aspects of recording in a digital environment. I learned a lot taking tutorials from literally teenagers and industry professionals on youtube and educational materials offered by the top musical instruments and software manufactuers ."

Apple's Logic Pro and Garageband virtually changed HarrMonika's life and career offering everything from Steinway pianos to a full array of Fender Guitars and virtually every orchestra instrument and sound in between. HarrMonika Musik Has Been Traveling Through Sound and Vibration Since
