to start a transaction in SkySlope; they can create it from their real estate CRM with just a click.

Once activated, Wise Agent members will have the options to write a listing, write an offer, send documents for signatures, and view current SkySlope transaction files from within the real estate CRM. After selecting an option, SkySlope's intuitive widget will collect any additional information needed and complete the action within the platform.

"Where do agents work and live today? They work in their email platforms, their CRM platforms, and their broker intranets, and lead systems. What if we could meet them exactly where they're at in one of these platforms?" explains Tyler Smith, SkySlope Founder & CEO.

SkySlope's widget will also suggest the most used real estate forms for each action and allow agents to pick and choose which documents are needed. SkySlope will also pull in MLS information, saving agents time when beginning their transactions.

After initiating a transaction action with the widget, it takes one click to be taken into the SkySlope platform to complete it. The widget will then immediately bring members to their dashboard to apply templates, add additional forms, and create envelopes for the deal.

Current SkySlope members will be able to sign in to their accounts right from the widget, and those that are not yet registered can sign-up for their free SkySlope Forms account. Free accounts will include forms, e-signature software, and document storage.

Members can also access the SkySlope widget from Wise Agent's real estate transaction checklists on the bottom right-hand corner. In addition, agents can initiate the options to write a listing, write an offer, or request signatures from this page.
