Blogger Faisal Alnaqbi Aka Emirati gets admitted to the hospital Due to spine surgery after his birthday party which was held at Armani Hotel Dubai

DUBAI, UNITED ARAB EMIRATES, July 9, 2021 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Blogger Faisal Alnaqbi Aka Emirati Nomad is admitted to the hospital Due to spine surgery after his birthday party at Armani Hotel Dubai. Alnaqbi shared that he has been suffering from pain for the last eight months and have finally decided to go for the surgery as two months of physiotherapy was not in his favour.

Alnaqbi showed on his Instagram pictures and videos of him walking using a walker, and he seemed to be recovering well. Alnaqbi explained that his spine injury started four or five years ago, and it started from his neck, where he did the surgery as well.

Alnaqbi Explains that the pain is out of this world, and even with heavy pain killers, he was able to sleep for only three hours per day.

Spine surgeries are usually not easy, but he put his trust in the fantastic Korean Team of doctors at Wooridul spine centre at Healthpoint Abu Dhabi. Dr Dong Bae performed the surgery using the latest technology with laser and Endoscopy. Alnaqbi's health is improving at the minute, and he is resting at his house in Dubai. Alnaqbi should make a full recovery within six weeks of the surgery. Patients should take some steps to ensure that they recover as quickly as possible after laser spine surgery.
