All Things Of Beauty Are Fragile

We are all masterpieces in our own special way and our planet is the masterpiece that gives us life. Just like any masterpiece, we need to take special care of both to be happy and survive.”

Kelsie Kimberlin

Reflecting on the bold beauty & delicate fragility of the world surrounding her, Kelsie's latest single is as vivid & colorful as a painting come to life. Metaphorically diving deep into the concept of "Masterpiece" – Kimberlin is stunning, graceful, angelic, and all-out spellbinding as she sings the melody & hooks of her brand-new song, personalizing the imagery of her words, while communicating a much more important message when the entire picture becomes clear. "Masterpiece" reveals our gorgeous world personified and presented through a dreamy crystalline prism of sound that evokes radiant emotion with every spin, detailing how each & every one of us are ourselves art, and how crucial it is to recognize & celebrate all that we are. While emphasizing the need for self-love & self-care to be a priority, and highlighting how every person is a "Masterpiece" in their own unique way, Kelsie has brilliantly proven how being at our best, from the humanity we display through our actions, to the values we choose to prioritize, connects our hearts and minds around the globe in profound ways that can generate positive change, together.

To stress the urgency & importance of acting on our planet's behalf immediately, Kelsie's brand-new video supporting "Masterpiece" shows the beauty of our world in full bloom through the spectacular scenery available on location where it was filmed outside in the splendor of Kyiv, Ukraine, and within the artistic walls of its legendary Opera House in Lviv.
