"I am thrilled and honored that One Moment has been selected to open the Long Island International Film Expo. The film has screened in a number of other states, but nothing beats a hometown crowd filled with family, friends and so many people who helped make this happen," says O'Connor. "I am also privileged to share Danny's final performance of a lifetime body of work. Although he is terribly missed, the silver lining is his fans and family can see Danny again on the 'big screen' where he truly shines," she adds.

As a SUNY Nassau Community College Associate Professor of Communications since 2004, Deirdre O'Connor makes her narrative feature directorial debut with One Moment. The film has met with international success, receiving accolades at the Sedona Film Fest with "Most Impactful Film," as well as Art of Brooklyn Film Festival's "Outstanding Narrative Feature," and Cinequest Film Festival, San Jose, CA, as the "Audience Award Winner" for Comedy and a top trending film. O'Connor was awarded the Lois Weber Spirit Award at the Barebones Film Fest in Muskogee, OK, along with One Moment being named "Audience Favorite." During the Beaufort International Film Festival (BIFF), Beaufort, SC, the film was awarded Best Comedy and Best Actor (Danny Aiello). Of more than 100 films at Cinequest, One Moment was highlighted in San Jose Mercury News as "1 of 12 films you should see." IMDB's founder and CEO Col Needham listed his favorite films of Cinequest 2021 - One Moment is one of them "featuring a great final performance from

Kyle Bain, FilmThreat.com critic reviewed One Moment, stating "O'Connor harnesses both drama and comedy to create an emotionally honest and amusing production. The impressive cast brings to life the rich, realistic characters with great aplomb." Rotten Tomatoes' "Top Critic" Randy Myers from San Jose News wrote, "Writer/director Deirdre O'Connor's heartfelt, sentimental and immensely relatable feature runs on just a little long, but fondly embraces dysfunctional families in all their pain and glory."

This comedy resonates on so many levels. After his wife's recent death from Alzheimer's, Joe McGuinness moved in with his daughter Caroline and her teenage daughter. It is not an easy adjustment for anyone. Joe is demanding and difficult and stubbornly believes he is still capable of running his own life –despite evidence to the contrary. Caroline and her sister Fran put everything on hold, rearranging their daily schedules, careers, and personal lives in order to assist their aging father. Two out-of-town siblings do little to help but, when they do, offer impractical and uninformed solutions that only add to the upheaval and chaos. Although the family is at odds as to how best care for their father in his final years, they are united in wanting to ensure his well-being and help him find peace of mind–without them losing their own. Welcome to the "Sandwich Generation."

The "Sandwich Generation" is a term that O'Connor hopes to put on the map with this film and make it an everyday recognized part of our cultural vernacular. The Sandwich Generation is those sandwiched between parenting their children and their parents, while also trying to manage jobs and personal lives. The film depicts how difficult it can be for everyone involved by infusing comedy and tender moments. One Moment's trailer may be found at <https://littleredpurseproductions.com>.
