

Proctortrack and Edsby announce partnership to deliver online test integrity for K-12 in Canada

NEW YORK, USA, July 12, 2021

/EINPresswire.com/ -- Proctortrack, a trusted identity verification and online remote proctoring company, announced a partnership with Edsby, a next-generation LMS for K-12, to deliver online exam integrity across Canada.

Proctortrack provides automated remote proctoring for distance learners taking tests online as a fully integrated multi-factor biometrics behavioral application. Proctortrack replicates traditional testing centers' security while giving students the flexibility to take proctored tests at home, with the ease of automation and complete scalability.

"We are excited to provide exam integrity to one of the most innovative and popular learning management systems in Canada," says Mr. Rahul Siddharth, COO/Co-founder, Proctortrack. "Maintaining academic integrity in an online era is essential now more than ever. Online degrees and certifications need valid student verification and true authentication, while holding equal value to traditional brick-and-mortar degrees and certificate programs. To confirm these standards, we feel that this partnership with Edsby is a significant step to meeting the needs of educators. We are looking forward to helping build together with Edsby the future of K-12."

"Proctortrack is an ideal solution for Edsby's clients looking for true identity verification that easily integrates into our learning platform," says John Myers, Co-founder & CEO, Edsby. "We see this association as the great way forward for our customers who want an identity verification system that ensures exam integrity."
