Ty currently serves on the Boynton Beach City Commission, representing District 4. He is also a High School Biology and Chemistry teacher.

Commissioner Ty Penserga concurrently serves as a board member of Boynton’s Community Redevelopment Agency (CRA), Quantum Park’s Overlay Dependent District (QPODD), and the South County Regional Wastewater Treatment and Disposal (SCRWTD) boards. He also serves as the representative to Palm Beach County’s League of Cities and the Intergovernmental Coordination Forum.

Ty moved to Palm Beach County as a young child and attended local public schools. After graduating high school, Ty went to Temple University in Philadelphia, where he earned his Bachelor’s degree in Chemistry and Biology. His parents instilled in him from an early age the importance of serving others in your community. While in college, Ty served as Senator representing the College of Science to Temple’s Student Government. He received the prestigious Diamond Award for his leadership, community service, and creating a mentoring pipeline to uplift underprivileged teens.

After graduating college, Ty returned to Palm Beach County to work as a high school teacher, where he shares his passion for chemistry and biology with hundreds of students. While teaching full-time, Ty attended Florida Atlantic University, where he earned his Master’s degree in Integrative Biology. As a scientist, Ty published his first research paper at the age of 17 and his most recent paper in 2019 in the prestigious international journal Frontiers in Neuroscience. His research focuses on advanced imaging techniques to uncover the underlying pathology of Alzheimer’s disease.
