With years of experience as entertainment industry executives, and a network of elite TV & Film insiders from all over the world, SCREEN ATX brings a promise of commitment to help our winning filmmakers elevate their career to the next level.

We assure filmmakers that we watch every submission and judge solely on talent and quality of work. Having been on the festival circuit with our own films for many years, we have witnessed favors being pulled, nepotism and priority given to bigger budget films with star names. SCREEN ATX knows the hard work and dedication filmmakers put into their films and we award films and individuals deserving of recognition, not because of who they are or who they may know.
