It is truly wonderful to see NSSF promoting National Shooting Sports Month. This is the perfect time for experienced shooters to introduce someone new to the sports they enjoy and for those who haven't been out target shooting lately to get back out there for some practice. With millions of new gun owners across the country, this is a great opportunity for them to learn more about shooting sports and gun safety.

"Last year's National Shooting Sports Month was a tremendous success, thanks to hundreds of ranges and retailers across the country reminding people about the fun and excitement of target shooting," said Zach Snow, NSSF Director, Retail & Range Business Development. "We're thrilled to have Re-Nine Safety join in continuing the celebration of the shooting sports this year."
