

What You Need to Know Before Enrolling in Medicare

Learn foundational information about Medicare, as well as how to enroll, in this free educational webinar.

NEW YORK CITY, NEW YORK, UNITED STATES, July 13, 2021

/EINPresswire.com/ -- As you approach retirement age, it's a good time to start thinking about the health insurance that will cover you during your golden years. At age 65, you will become eligible for Medicare, if you haven't already. This government health insurance plan covers 61 million Americans. But the program has a myriad of options and subdivisions. How will you understand the program well enough to choose the best option for you?

One way to start learning is by joining Advice Chaser's latest webinar. The free online presentation begins at noon Pacific Time on July 28. To reserve your spot at the event, sign up here.

Advice Chaser, a matching service connecting clients with trusted financial advisors, will host the webinar. The presentation will introduce attendees to the Medicare program with an easy-to-understand overview of the basics. We'll go over topics like:

- Who qualifies, and how and when to apply for Medicare
- How to transition from employer insurance to Medicare
- The four parts of Medicare: A, B, C, and D
- Options and supplements to Medicare, including HMOs, PPOs, and gap coverage
- When you can enroll, including initial, general, and special enrollment periods
