The Equal Verdicts Campaign

The South Philly native felt compelled to tell this true crime story in a time when America is airing its dirty laundry. This story some two decades in the making chronicles the lives of the 4 wrongly accused men who spent 18 months on death row for a crime they did not commit. In Equal Verdicts: The True Story of the Lex Street Massacre moviegoers will see what drives misguided law enforcement and an ambitious prosecutor to come to the wrong conclusion, forever changing 4 lives.

“

It was one of the most compelling and tragic stories I've ever encountered and I felt obligated to share it with the world.”

Antonne M. Jones
