

Chiselbury publishes 'Before Hiroshima'

Chiselbury Publishing announces the publication of 'Before Hiroshima' by Dr Jacqueline Jaynes telling the story of the fall of Hong Kong and Singapore in WW2.

LONDON, UNITED KINGDOM, July 15, 2021 /EINPresswire.com/ -- 15 July 2021, London. Chiselbury Publishing is pleased to announce the publication of Before Hiroshima by Dr Jacqueline Jaynes.

Before Hiroshima tells the story of the fall of Hong Kong and Singapore and the aftermath during World War II. It recounts the true stories of those who were there and who became prisoners of war or internees, as well the ordeals of those that waited for them or lived with them when they came home.

Commenting on the announcement, Stuart Leasor, Chiselbury's publisher, said, "We are delighted to have published Before Hiroshima. It is an important work recounting the terrible stories of so many people.

Jacqueline Jaynes combines her experience as a distinguished writer on business management with her intimate knowledge of and work with the Far East Prisoners of War community to tell a story that should not be forgotten."
