Power, Conspiracy, and Cover Ups in a Failed Criminal Justice System

An Inside Look at California's Corrupt Criminal Justice System and the Very Real Dangers Citizens Face in California: State of Collusion. Legal gladiator Joseph Tully exposes California's alarming culture of power, conspiracy, and cover-ups. Rich in first-hand accounts, Tully's book reveals unique insights and unimpeachable evidence for:

- Racial profiling
- High court treason
- Massive snitch-for-hire networks
- Appellate courts disregard of Constitutional rights
- FBI payments for Superhero-Cop media portrayals
- Daunting legal shields protecting corrupt prosecutors

Nobody knows this story better than trial lawyer Joseph Tully. His account will surely ignite Californians and ultimately all Americans into action.

Thousands of American citizens have been wrongfully convicted over the last three decades. For the lucky ones in the lot, proof of their innocence came only too late, after a life of imprisonment, abuse, and shame. As one of the top criminal defense attorneys in the country, Joseph Tully knows full well that the right to an attorney is something TV criminals can always count on, but real-life arrestees seldom encounter.

For Tully, justice is something you fight for every day. In this groundbreaking book based on decades spent exonerating innocent Californians, Tully exposes fraudulent snitch programs, corrupt judges, prosecutors who destroy exculpatory evidence, and all manner of individuals who are out to secure convictions and advance their careers, rather than ensure that the innocent go free and the guilty remain behind bars.

In this, his second book, Tully provides a vivid and shocking picture of the national scourge of wrongful conviction, chronic prosecutor misconduct, and the elusiveness of justice in California's courtrooms.

"Innocent people can be subjected to a power trip police encounter, arrested by a megalomaniacal cop, jailed by a sadist, prosecuted by a manipulative Machiavellian, and judged by an ego-tripping sociopath," states Joseph Tully.
