"Parikh Info Solutions Pvt. Ltd is associated with professional linguists from different industries with years of experience. We have natives from various regions worldwide and countries on board with us to work in association with their well-versed language. Our core team of management comprises members from various Indian states, speaking native languages. We work on projects with native freelancers having professional translation experience and specific domain knowledge spanning 3 to 10 years. We are skilled in providing 100% human translation to our clients. According to the client's preferences and requirements, our linguistic experts are skilled and experienced in using AI tools too. Our linguists use leading CAT (Computer Aided Translation) tools like Trados, Wordfast Pro, Memsource, memoQ, ATMS, TWS, MateCAT, SmartCAT, XTM, and so on to offer high-quality translated output, while keeping it consistent and concise," says Ravisha Parikh, Director, Parikh Info Solutions Pvt. Ltd.

"High-quality services at affordable prices during the project and even after months of submission & completion of the projects are some differentiating factors that make Parikh Info Solutions Pvt. Ltd distinguished from other LSPs in the market. We provide language translation and interpretation services at a cost-effective rate along with many peculiarities that fit right in the customer's budget. Our transparency in the procedure, rates, and continued support help us build and maintain a healthy client relationship. Aligning our technical knowledge and skills in both language and digital marketing, we have ventured into digital marketing services. We prominently offer unique digital marketing services and marketing solutions in all Indian languages", states Amitt Parikh, Managing Director, Parikh Info Solutions Pvt. Ltd.

Notable for its efficient, accurate, and consistent language services for over 20 years, Parikh Info Solutions Pvt. Ltd has worked on 50+ language projects for more than 275 clients across 25 countries. Acknowledging the importance of high-quality translation, Parikh Info Solution adheres to allocating their best team to work on the client's project. The projects undergo scrutinizing and proofreading before approval and hence come across multiple quality checks. It ensures that everything mentioned in the project specifications is covered and the client gets the best outcome.

The procedure starts with understanding client requirements, domain knowledge, tools to be used, and assigning the task to the most suitable linguist matching the needs. Followed by proofreading, editing, and moderating by a second experienced native linguist and a final QA by the project manager to reassure about the specifications and instructions mentioned while assigning.

“Services from Parikh Info Solutions Pvt.
