

TopDevelopers.co publishes List of Leading Node.js Developers to look out for in July 2021

TopDevelopers.co has recently curated a list of Top Node.js Developers after analyzing the service of developers on various parameters to help service seekers.

SAN FRANCISCO, CALIFORNIA, UNITED STATES, July 15, 2021

/EINPresswire.com/ -- In the advent of advanced softwares, internet of things, and never seen before technologies, today's requirements for processing and consuming real-time information are of utmost importance. Node.js, a JavaScript, browser-compatible environment, becomes the best choice when it comes to delivering on these requirements. It provides scalability (for future expansion of software as required), versatility (different platforms compatibility), and reduces time and money considerably (its Node Packet Manager helps reduce coding time and effort).

Amazon, Netflix, eBay, Reddit, LinkedIn, Tumblr, and PayPal all use Node.js. 85% use it primarily for web app development.

Node.js is used by at least 20 million websites.
