To be eligible, applicants must be US residents or have a valid student visa. They must be enrolled at FGCU (Florida Gulf Coast University) for the Spring 2022 semester and working toward a degree in either accounting, finance, or management. Applicants must have a GPA of at least 3.0 at the time of application.

Applicants must submit an essay of 500 words or more. Midland provides three essay prompts from which to choose.

Entrants will fill out a simple application on the Midland Trust website and upload their essays.

Submissions will be reviewed by the Midland Scholarship Committee after the October deadline, and a winner will be selected and notified by November 30, 2021.

In conjunction with this scholarship opportunity, Midland is also offering an internship opportunity. Applicants will be considered for the internship if they elect so on the scholarship application. Midland's internship program is a great way to introduce accounting, finance, and management majors to a niche financial company. They will experience many facets within our business and should be well prepared for a professional career whether it be at Midland or elsewhere.
