ROCHESTER, NEW YORK, UNITED STATES, July 29, 2021

/EINPresswire.com/ -- Happy Mustard Day to All Those Packet Collectors Out There! Keep Your Condiment Packets Safe and Organized. Our favorite time of year is approaching fast! Mustard Day, August 7, is right around the corner. This is the day when we can all celebrate the sharp, tangy condiment that we love to use on grilled summer foods.

A lucky few of us also know the joy of collecting those fun little packets they give away at restaurants. The bright, colorful little squeeze packets stir up nostalgia of younger days, or maybe just make us hungry. Either way, it's a challenge to keep our collectibles organized.

That's where StoreSMART's 9-Pocket Binder Pages come in. Stop losing or damaging your packets. Keep them safe and secure in these sturdy plastic holders. Compatible with three-ring binders, it's easy to maintain order in your collection. Each page contains nine pockets, so you can display many different packets side-by-side. Organize your packets with ease; sort them by condiment type, brand, or year!

"It's such a fun and unique hobby," says Reenie Feingold, founder of StoreSMART. "I'm glad we're able to provide a little peace of mind for folks looking to impose order on their collections."
