About Woodfield Fine Art Gallery:

Since 2015, Woodfield Fine Art Gallery is known for representing local visual artists. Woodfield continues his original intent of presenting laudable art works of Tampa Bay area artists where art patrons can view and buy original art. As an artist and gallerist, Jim Woodfield understands the intersection between artist, gallery and clientele. The Mission of the Gallery: To provide a retail outlet where Tampa Bay area artists can present their works to art enthusiasts and collectors.

Gallerist and artist, Jim Woodfield moving to his new gallery up the block in the Grand Central Arts District.

About Jim Woodfield:

Upon retiring in 2010, Jim Woodfield was able to commit to his art full time when he relocated to St Petersburg from Texas. Always connected to the arts, Woodfield started in a small studio in the Warehouse Arts District. After discovering how much talent was in the area, he realized the opportunity to provide a professional space for local artists to exhibit their works to art enthusiasts and collectors.
