

Tayana Solutions delivers multiple modules of Acumatica and Acu Process Manufacturing in low budget.

APM is designed for formula or recipe-based, batch manufacturers who require QC, production costing, lot traceability, recalls, and compliance reporting.

ATLANTA, GA, UNITED STATES, July 19, 2021 /EINPresswire.com/ -- With demand to fulfill upwards of 500 orders a day and to manufacture upwards of 20,000 plus products in a day, Big Country Raw is able to handle their production and order fulfillment seamlessly using Acumatica Cloud ERP. They are confident of meeting higher demands and greater growth using Acumatica's flexibility and scale.

Robert Brouwer, co-founder of Big Country Raw said we needed an Acumatica Partner who understands all modules and its financial implications. We found a perfect combination of these coupled with manufacturing expertise with Tayana and I am glad we chose them. They helped us deliver efficiently avoiding scope creep and within the desired budget. Their project execution model was refreshing where their subject-matter experts guided our team effortlessly towards successful implementation.

System is seamless to use as it is native to the Acumatica system and integrates well with other modules”

Vijay Ural, President, Tayana Solutions commented, it was pleasure working with Big Country Raw's experienced and friendly team. Although it was demanding to implement several modules of Acumatica in record budget, we were able to manage due to our global delivery model. We hope to repeat this success with many other clients in the coming months using our Center of Excellence (COE) for Acumatica by helping save significant implementation costs to them.
