Planet Bluegrass

Planet Bluegrass has coordinated a unique on-stage collaboration to celebrate the life and music of the late flatpicking guitar legend Tony Rice featuring Sam Bush, Béla Fleck, David Grisman, Jerry Douglas, Bryan Sutton, Chris Eldridge, and Mark Schatz, who collectively have won 22 GRAMMY awards.

Béla Fleck's Rockygrass appearance represents a special opportunity to get a preview of some of his new bluegrass tunes- his first in over 20 years.

To capture these unique moments, Planet Bluegrass will present a multi-camera stream, including exclusive merchandise, behind the scenes artist interviews, and some of RockyGrass' epic campground jams. This is an outstanding chance for fans to participate in the festival virtually.

RockyGrass streaming tickets can be purchased at rockygrass.mandolin.com. Day passes are $20, and full weekend passes are $50.
