

MOBLIHOUSE EXPANDING US BUSINESS INTEREST

AS THE GLOBAL ECONOMY OPENS UP, IT PRESENTS THE OPPORTUNITY FOR BUSINESS GROWTH

WASHINGTON, DC, USA, July 20, 2021 /EINPresswire.com/ -- MobliHouse, the Colombian-based company committed to design perfection is setting its sights on the American consumer. According to the company's CEO, Jairo Zambrano, "we have done business with America, we believe it is time to do more business after testing the market. We are passionate about design, we carefully search the world for high standards of design pieces to personalize your office, your home, or your business and we know the US market is ready for us to expand."

The Bureau of Economic Analysis, a source of accurate and objective data about the nation's economy, shows the US economy is bouncing back. Businesses are letting people come back to work and people have outfitted their home office and home to suit their needs. Supply chains have evaluated their systems and are ramping up. People want to personalize their space, change the design, or upgrade for comfort and MobliHouse stands ready to meet their needs.

Mr. Zambrano founded the business in 2003 after witnessing a gap in the market to modernize classic designs. He knew that people should receive good quality materials with beautiful designs while expecting quality customer service. "We strive to understand the consumer. We interact with our clients, that is how we continue to evolve. We match their wants down to the smallest detail. Our products are created by the best designers in the world, and we bring them to you," says Zambrano.
