

A Marceau stolen in 2017 during Canada's 150th anniversary celebrations has finally been returned to the artist

MONTREAL, QUEBEC, CANADA, July 23, 2021 /EINPresswire.com/ -- On Friday, July 16, 2021, an employee of the Maison Natale de Louis Fréchette contacted the artist Stéphane Marceau to inform him that the painting "Le Voilier" had been returned to them anonymously. A few hours after the delivery of the work, valued at more than $60,000, a Quebec City collector became the proud owner of the painting, adding a fourth Marceau to his collection.

"I can't stop looking at the magnificent painting you left me. We'll have to take a souvenir photo of the two of us to document the incredible story behind your masterpiece" Edward G.

As for the artist, he takes a positive view of this event, knowing that it arouses lust, jealousy and fetishism in many people. "It's the price of fame" he says.

Publication authorized by Stéphane Marceau

Le monde des Arts

email us here

Visit us on social media:

Facebook

LinkedIn

The work "Le Voilier" newly acquired by a proud Quebec City collector

This press release can be viewed online at: <https://www.einpresswire.com/article/546982067>

EIN Presswire's priority is source transparency. We do not allow opaque clients, and our editors try to be careful about weeding out false and misleading content. As a user, if you see something we have missed, please do bring it to our attention. Your help is welcome. EIN Presswire,

Everyone's Internet News Presswire™, tries to define some of the boundaries that are reasonable in today's world. Please see our Editorial Guidelines for more information.

© 1995-2021 IPD Group, Inc. All Right Reserved.