By accepting Nancy Pelosi's appointment, Adam Kinzinger has demonstrated that he values the applause of Democrats and the liberal media over the interests of the 16th District”

Kinzinger for being used as a patsy for Nancy Pelosi following Kinzinger's appointment to the Democratic January 6th partisan commission. Kinzinger, said Lombardi no longer represents the 16th District nor the Republican Party. Rather in his pursuit of favor from the Democrats, CNN, and MSNBC, he has turned his back on the people who elected him. Lombardi called upon House Minority Leader Kevin McCarthy to remove Kinzinger from his House Committee assignments saying that by accepting Pelosi's appointment he no longer represents Republican principles nor the values of the 16th District.

“By accepting Nancy Pelosi's appointment to the sham January 6th Commission, Adam Kinzinger has demonstrated that he values the applause of Democrats and the liberal media over the interests and values of the 16th District,” said Jack Lombardi. “Every day, Adam Kinzinger has moved further and further away from the Republican Party by attacking fellow Republicans and even defending Alexandria Ocasio-Cortez and the squad. Today is the final straw.

“Adam Kinzinger no longer represents the voters who elected him or the Republican Party,” concluded Lombardi. “I call upon House Minority Leader to strip Kinzinger of his House Committee assignments. Kinzinger is a Party of one. Let's see how his Democratic friends respond when he is cut off from the Republican Party.”
