EDISON, NJ, UNITED STATES, July 26, 2021 /EINPresswire.com/ -- In June, the Edison Chamber of Commerce launched Mayor Lankey's summer music series every Wednesday night on the corner of Amboy Avenue and Third Street to provide free entertainment for residents. Adjacent businesses have been doing their part to entice attendance with menu specials.

specials for takeout can found by hungry show goers at the nearby at Ruby's Kitchen, Nick's Meat Depot and Fratelli's Pizza Café and the Coffee House is there to sell soft drinks and ice cream.

Upcoming bands on the schedule are:

In addition to hosting the market, the "big tent" will be the new home to the town's annual Beer and Wine Festival on August 21, 2021 and a fall farmers market launching in October. A car show and holiday event planning is also underway. Details on those events and the remaining music lineups will announced shortly.

"This is all a continuation of our program to bring neighbors together and have a good time," explains Chamber of Commerce President Joe Coyle. "It's a great opportunity for folks to come down to Clara Barton, grab a bite to eat and be entertained."
