A multi-talented composer, producer, rapper, singer, photographer, and all around creative light warrior; he is fulfilling his soul mission to help facilitate the growth of others using his musical talents and gifts. He feels it his duty to help illuminate the path for others who seek light and truth and you can feel it through his music!

Born in Nashville, Tennessee but raised in Eugene and Portland, Oregon respectively; BWilly is bringing a fresh and positive attitude to the world music scene.

From songwriting, to production, to instrumentation, to recording, to cover art and music videos; no matter what it is you can be guaranteed that BWilly will leave his positive mark upon it.

"Music is in my blood. I love creating dope beats for people to vibe out to. I love making music that helps heal the listener without them even realizing it. Even when I'm making a head banging trap beat, I still put a lot of love and light into my creations, and I feel that is felt and received on the other end. I do not take my creative talents and their transformational abilities lightly."

Keeping true to his roots of facilitating positive change, BWilly (aka Brennan Williams) is using his artist platform for good. He started his own charity endeavor in the form of the "Lightwarrior Fund" which was setup to be able give back to the communities that raised him as well as to people around the world that are going through dire times of need.

"I have been put through a lot in this lifetime. The good the bad and the evil. It is the storms in life that shape us into the people we are meant to be. I know I am where I am supposed to be, doing what I'm meant to be doing at this time. I know my calling and I'm bringing myself to the table fully prepared to take the world by surprise! My angels remind me regularly and for that I am grateful. With my daughter and the hardest working woman I've ever had the pleasure of calling my girl, Lil Bundt Cake, by my side. Together we are going to leave our mark on society for the better. God has big plans for us. Those plans include helping others and helping mother earth using my God granted gifts to create real opportunities for us all. There are so many amazingly talented and beautiful artists from Oregon that I've been connecting and collaborating with lately and Prestige Worldwide Consulting is going to sign and represent some of the best talent the 541 has to offer! We will put Oregon on the musical map and I have no doubt we will be as big as Young Money here real soon because I'm manifesting it!"

A multitalented master of the arts, BWilly's second album "Manifesting" sees him focusing on instrumentals, as he shows you his mesmerizing and high quality music production skills built over the last 7 years. It is for this reason that he has not stuck to a single genre, showing a spectacular range throughout his career.
