leading education technology company, is pleased to announce the availability of integrated payments powered by Paya within Sycamore School, the company's powerful Student Information System.

"Incorporating Paya's payments technology directly into Sycamore School makes the payments process easier and more efficient for everyone," said Mark Dalluge, Sycamore's Director of Operations. "This integration gives families the flexibility to pay when and how they want and helps schools run smoother and more efficiently."

When a school chooses Paya to accept payments, transaction data feeds seamlessly into Sycamore School and everything is updated and processed in real time. Schools can securely accept credit, debit, ACH, and checks as one-time payments, and invoice statuses are automatically updated when paid. Soon, schools will also be able to easily schedule automatic recurring payments.

"Sycamore Education was founded with the primary goal of making it easier for schools and families to manage day-to-day operations and requirements," said Dalluge. "Our partnership with Paya is one more example of how Sycamore continues to deliver better and more efficient administrative and classroom tools and experiences for teachers, administrators, students, and parents."
