ANNAPOLIS, MARYLAND, UNITED STATES, July 27, 2021

/EINPresswire.com/ -- This past Wednesday, Fitzgerald Auto Malls celebrated the grand opening of its newly renovated Fitzgerald Mazda Annapolis. This was the first in-person event held at Fitzgerald Auto Mall since the beginning of the pandemic. Attendance at the ribbon-cutting ceremony included a citation from U.S. Senator Ben Cardin, and a citation from the Annapolis state delegation who attended, including State Senator Sarah Elfreth, Delegate Dana Jones, Delegate Shaneka Henson, and other community partners and friends.

For us, this new showroom is a testament to Fitzgerald's commitment to energy efficiency and employee wellbeing.”

Jack Fitzgerald

Built in the 1960s as a traditional VW store, Fitzgerald purchased the Mazda dealership in 1999. The Mazda showroom has now undergone a complete transformation to a state-of-the-art energy-efficient glass-enclosed showcase. Designed by architect Penney Design Group and general contractor Porter Construction, the Fitzgerald Mazda dealership adds more natural light to workspaces and an open floor concept to the showroom and offices. “Our people are very excited to work in and welcome the community to our bright and expansive new showroom. For us, this new showroom is a testament to Fitzgerald's commitment to energy efficiency and employee wellbeing.” said Jack Fitzgerald, founder of Fitzgerald Auto Malls.
