VANCOUVER, BC, CANADA, July 27, 2021 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Couloir Capital Ltd. is pleased to announce the initiation of research coverage on Macarthur Minerals Limited (TSXV: MMS, ASX: MIO, OTCQB: MMSDF). The report is titled, "Miner with a Superior Grade Project, Early Cash Flow Prospects and Strong Earnings Leverage." Report excerpt: "With clear development objectives for calendar 2021 in the works and near-term cash flow potential buoyed up by a hot iron ore market, MMS is well positioned to become Australia's next high-grade iron ore producer."

The report contains an in-depth and current analysis of the Australian iron-ore industry. Report excerpt: "Despite the developmental challenges and growing pains of pushing through the next generation of magnetite iron ore mines, we believe the pressures of a greener future will force adaptation in the iron ore mining industry. As longer-term demand trends cement themselves and steel mills turn quality preferences into procurement requirements, we think the ultimate choice left to global iron ore miners will be to shift to higher-quality deposits."

The report can be accessed through Couloir Capital's portal: <https://www.couloircapital.com/research-portal>
