FARO, PORTUGAL , July 27, 2021

/EINPresswire.com/ -- If you are looking to invest in a location that has been nicknamed the Santorini of Portugal and is the best kept secret in the Algarve, where property will soon be sold at a premium, then look no further than Burgau.

This charming fishing village is one of Algarve's most scenic locations and has stunning cliffs, hidden beaches, fortress ruins and even dinosaur fossils. Known for its white and blue houses Burgau is picture perfect!

With less than 300 inhabitants, it offers a considerable number of restaurants and bars, most with sea views. Many expats live in the area and enjoy all the lifestyle choices available to them including a vibrant nightlife.

The biggest attraction is Praia do Burgau, a Blue Flag beach with its stretch of golden sands and crystalline waters. Along the beach you can find small boats of fishermen who still practice traditional fishing techniques. This beach is the starting point of the Costa Vicentina.

You can also plan a visit and explore the ancient shipwrecks and Roman artifacts in the Boca do
