About:

Swanga Swang is a rising singer, songwriter, and rapper hailing from Texas. Beginning his musical journey through singing in church, at the age of 12 Swanga Swang joined a Gospel group, along with his brother, cousins, and friends. During his early adolescence years, the group would set up shows and concerts, and rent out buildings to perform. Following this, Swanga Swang was also a part of different Rap groups, and worked on an R&B album with his brother, complemented with the single "Cherry Wine", which went on to hit Number #1 on local artist countdown showcase on KAZI 88.7 in Austin 98.

Currently ready and psyched to show the world his solo artistry and talent, Swanga Swang is letting it all out, staying productive and following his creativity. He has a passion for music, with styles ranging from Soul, Rap, and Country: something which has earned him the title of "Mr. All in One".
