TreX Sunshine Coast has been sorely missed by athletes for the past two years as essential works were carried out on the Ewen Maddock Dam wall, but with works complete and water lapping the shores of the dam once again TreX is back in a much-anticipated return.

Queensland Championships

And the news doesn't stop there. TreX Sunshine Coast has been awarded the Triathlon Queensland State Championships. So, not only will athletes be celebrating the return of this renowned event, but they will also have the chance to be in the running to qualify for the Australian national team and a state championships title.
