

JUSTLAW offering free LLC formation for a limited time

JUSTLAW, the nation's top destination for small business legal services, is offering free LLC formation for a very limited time. Offer ends Labor Day '21.

NEW YORK, NY, UNITED STATES, July 28, 2021 /EINPresswire.com/ -- JUSTLAW, a New York City-based legal tech startup, told us it was on a mission to democratize law. It's delivering on that promise. The company is offering aspiring entrepreneurs a chance to form a new limited liability company (LLC) free of charge. The customer will be responsible for the payment of state filing fees and any registered agent fees, but JUSTLAW will charge nothing to complete the paperwork and make the filing. No strings attached, and no commitments required.

JUSTLAW representative Clara Adams noted, "We launched with a mission to democratize law, to make top quality legal services available where they are needed most. For too long the business backbone of America - small business - has been overlooked, left behind and overcharged by the legal industry. It's high time that change."

The company noted that typical filing fees run in the $120-$150 range in most states. This exciting offer will end on Labor Day 2021.
