I will give one of my best performance by being in the best form”

Mayank Pawar

A pro card makes an athlete eligible to compete globally and of course, puts them a step closer to the main Olympia stage, the world's biggest professional bodybuilding championship.

Mayank Pawar is being training 2 hours twice a day with strict diet to get the best form of his life. As a child he was born in a poor family in North Delhi & is a self made man with many achievements and has also made his way to the TV glamour industry.

The Amateur Olympia event is expected to be in December this year at Mumbai India. Bodybuilding is a sport where you need very hard dedication & strict discipline to follow, its not a easy game, it takes year to reach the form to win a title in this sport.
