What Customers are Saying

“Lamperti Contracting and Design has a long-standing (positive) reputation in Marin. Sean Kelly, owner, is a person of great integrity as is his highly-qualified staff. The showroom is one of the best in northern California and their commitment to doing excellent work is unparalleled.”

- Jennifer B.

“I purchased a replacement under-counter Sub-Zero refrigerator from Lamperti. Luckily, I also had them do the removal/replacement. Because the kitchen floor had been replaced since the original purchase, the removal was extremely difficult. The crew was terrific. They never complained and they were very careful. Although it took a few extra hours, everything was perfect. No damage, dirt, etc. If I'd had an appliance installation company do the install, I think they might have damaged the granite countertop or the woodwork. Because Lamperti does complete kitchens, their guys know all about these related issues. And the office people are great, too.” - Doug K.
