PALO ALTO, CA, UNITED STATES, August 2, 2021 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Chess.com is thrilled to announce that Grandmaster Fabiano Caruana, the 2018 world championship challenger, #1 rated American chess player, and longtime #2 player in the world, will be a Chess.com commentator for the 2021 World Chess Championship!

Caruana's unparalleled insights on world championship matches and on the champion Magnus Carlsen are sure to give fans a remarkable experience during the event. After nearly winning the 2016 Candidates tournament, Caruana took home the 2018 Candidates by winning his final two games, earning his spot in the 2018 World Chess Championship. On the chess world's highest stage, Caruana impressively went undefeated in 12 classical games against Grandmaster Magnus Carlsen, including pushing Carlsen to the limit in their sixth game.

Caruana's many accomplishments also include a historic run at the 2014 Sinquefeld Cup, with a perfect 7/7 start in one of the toughest tournament fields in history on
