ADDITIONS STRENGTHEN COMPANY'S UNIQUE VALUE PROPOSITION IN KEY GOLF MARKET

DALLAS, TEXAS, UNITED STATES, August 2, 2021 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Arcis Golf, the second largest and fastest-growing owner and operator of golf facilities in the United States, has acquired six Mickelson Golf Properties from professional golfer and World Golf Hall of Fame legend Phil Mickelson and his business partner, Steve Loy. The transaction closed today, and Arcis Golf assumes operations on Tuesday, August 3.

The six properties include three upscale private clubs and three daily fee facilities, each with its own distinctive identity and sense of place.

With this acquisition, Arcis Golf now has 15 properties within a short drive time of the greater Phoenix area.

"These exceptional additions to our portfolio support our strategy of owning and operating preeminent properties within each of our key hub or expansion markets," said Blake Walker, Founder, and CEO of Arcis Golf. "We're excited to bring our unique approach to delivering extraordinary experiences to members and guests at these great private and daily fee facilities."

"We're thrilled to work with Arcis Golf, and we're entrusting them to build upon the success we've created so far with these properties," Mickelson said. "We were very impressed with the Arcis leadership team and their commitment to their members and guests, and we look forward to continuing our business relationship."

The Stone Canyon Club

Each Mickelson club presents a unique and differentiated golf experience. Coupled with the existing Arcis Golf properties, these new assets offer unprecedented course optionality, experiences and content for members, guests, and visitors to the region.

The new clubs joining the Arcis Golf portfolio are:

Palm Valley Golf Club (Goodyear)

The original Arthur Hills design has been expanded to 27 holes (North, South, West) and offers golfers of all ages an approachable and immensely playable family-centric experience.
