

Meepology launches its campaign today for Board Gamers Everywhere

Board Gamers can soon game their personalities

AUSTIN, TEXAS, UNITED STATES, August 3, 2021 /EINPresswire.com/ -- You can now Game Your Personality and Make Game Nights Even Better

A new tool and company out of Austin, Texas (known for new tech ideas and home to many in the technology sector) has launched the Meepology Process that helps determine what personality trait you have the greatest strength in and matches you to what games fit your play style the best!

The creator Shane "Bogue" Bogardus was inspired by the reality that we all faced over the past year of being home bound and surrounded by family and close friends alone. "My gaming group was shut down and the outlet for gaming I once had that my family supported but did not share in was not to gather for the foreseeable future. I had to find a way that truly brought enjoyment to my family within the hobby of board games and I turned to basic psychology and really focused on what would inspire or excite them to play. It wasn't necessarily my favorite games at first, but we found common ground in what we liked in mechanics and characteristics of a game. We have had amazing times since then. That was the spark for Meepology!"

The Kickstarter Campaign launched today and can be found HERE. You can see active screen shots and support the project at different levels of interest.

Highlighted features include ranking your personalized list of games from both new and existing publishers and hearting/liking new games from the list you want to demo, purchase, and play at a later date. The most popular feature will be combining your gaming groups personality traits and generating a list of games that all will love and want to play each game night. You will be able to easily importing your gaming groups libraries of games or explore the latest game titles in the market that rank the highest among the group.
