In this interview for the School for Good Living Podcast, Sadhguru joins Brilliant Miller to discuss his new Green Earth Initiative; a group focused on informing the world of the facts regarding environmental decline, and it's hopeful reversal. They discuss the importance of this planet, it's fragile ecology, and the surprising cause of it's decline. We also talk about the importance of soil, and how it is the root of all life. Lastly, he gives some insight on writing his books and where he has found to look for inspiration.

Everything that's happening to you is entirely your making because human experience comes from within.”

Sadhguru

Topics Discussed:

- The purpose of life here on this planet
- The human experience
- Action over inspiration

- The degradation of our soil
- The next steps
