

RiteMind Productions Announces Two-Picture Deal With Maverick Entertainment

MD Production Studio Inks Deal With Leading Film Distributor

LANHAM, MARYLAND, UNITED STATES, August 9, 2021 /EINPresswire.com/ -- RiteMind Productions, LLC and Maverick Entertainment Group announced today that the two companies have partnered up on a multi-picture distribution deal. This agreement will allow the Maryland-based production studio to release original feature length content in conjunction with one of the industry's leading film distributors.

"We're very excited and extremely grateful for this opportunity. For an industry heavyweight like Maverick to see something in our films and to give us an opportunity to be showcased along with their productions really speaks volumes," says Devin Jones, Co-founder of RiteMind Productions.

This agreement will see Maverick Entertainment license and distribute the upcoming college age urban dramedy "The Young and The Ratchet", due out September 14, 2021 as well as a to-be-announced comedy film, expected to begin production in the 4th quarter of 2021.

We come across a lot of filmmakers at Maverick and this pair, Devin and Nigel, have a unique way of telling a story”

Doug Schwab

“We come across a lot of filmmakers at Maverick and this pair, Devin and Nigel, have a unique way of telling a story,” said Doug Schwab, President of Maverick Entertainment Group. “We are very excited to be releasing Ritemind’s film to the world and producing further projects with their team.”

“We're excited about being able to create memorable, but more importantly, quality content,” continues Nigel

Gabbidon, Co-founder of RiteMind Productions. "I'm glad we got the opportunity to work with Maverick Entertainment Group."

RiteMind Productions aims to create three to four feature length motion pictures a year, with an emphasis on all original content in a wide variety of genres.
