released in October, 2021. Stewart, seldom a man who ever slows down, has also just finished his next book, “The Entrapment of Debt” coming out in 2022. According to Stewart, this next book is all about empowering people financially and helping set them on a path to be financially free.

“Our company is thrilled that André has been nominated for The L.A. Times B2B CFO & CEO Leadership Awards,” said Director of InvestFar, Janette Villegas. The InvestFar team congratulates Andre and wishes him continued success. In addition, we are looking forward to ‘The Entrapment of Debt.’ Its title speaks to the state of the world today and provides encouragement and real solutions for a way out. It is a ‘must read’ for anyone tired of their ongoing, crushing debt or those who feel trapped in a 9-5 job. Readers will be given actionable and clear insights regarding the ongoing global debt crisis and how to manage their finances.”

According to Ms. Villegas, “With InvestFar, out-of-market real estate investing is now local. The process of remote investing is now safe and easy. InvestFar is spearheading the globalization of real estate investing by making it easy for people to buy investment properties anywhere in the world without ever leaving their homes. You’ll be able to buy, then fix, flip, rent or list your property for free, anywhere in the world. You can even manage the investment property through our property management tool.” With the InvestFar platform, property owners can list their properties and connect with investors or renters—save on the standard 3% - 6% fees by listing for free.
