

Colorado Conference Calls All Patriots to Action

Truth & Liberty Coalition: A two-day conference in Woodland Park, CO

WOODLAND PARK, COLORADO, UNITED STATES, August 9, 2021 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The Truth & Liberty Coalition, a nonprofit organization inspiring ordinary people to participate in government, will hold a conference on the campus of Charis Bible College, Sept. 10-11. The conference will empower citizens to influence our state and nation with positive change and biblical values. Founded on the American ideal that government should be “of the people, by the people and for the people,” the Truth & Liberty Coalition’s mission is to educate, unify and mobilize Christians to stand for biblical truth in the public square.

This two-day conference will feature speakers Andrew Wommack, U.S. Reps. Doug Lamborn and Lauren Boebert of Colorado, Mario Murillo, Pastor Duane Sheriff, Bishop E.W. Jackson and Richard Harris. These conservative voices will encourage and motivate attendees to exercise their constitutional rights and see effective change in their communities.

Attendees will have the opportunity to join interactive workshops facilitated by influential leaders who will share useful information on how to get involved and act. Topics include reaching ethnic communities, how to start a culture impact team, election integrity, opportunities for influence in 2022, and much more. Numerous conservative organizations will have booths at the conference where attendees can engage and find opportunities to get involved.

The conference will feature a musical celebration of America and 20th anniversary commemoration of Sept. 11, 2001. The performances will inspire and motivate people to advance the ideals that make America great!

The Truth & Liberty Conference is a free event, but registration is requested. Children are welcome but childcare is not provided.
