

AI Forum announce new collaboration with the EY organization to help advance the development and adoption of AI

AI Forum and EY teams combine resources to generate research and thought leadership in Enterprise AI

LONDON, UNITED KINGDOM, August 11, 2021 /EINPresswire.com/ -- AI Forum and EY

EY teams are thrilled to be working with the AI Forum to help accelerate the implementation and adoption of AI across the enterprise.”

Dan Diasio, EY Global Consulting Artificial Intelligence (AI) Leader

announced a global research and thought leadership relationship to help advance and accelerate enterprise level adoption of artificial intelligence.

The collaboration, titled Enterprise AI 2022, will include primary and secondary research across multiple industry sectors and geographic regions. Specific areas of focus will include AI governance, convergence of AI and IoT, intersection of AI and cybersecurity and AI scalability.

“The EY-AI Forum relationship is built on providing differentiating and transformational insight,” comments

Peyman Mestchian, Chairman of Advisory Board at AI Forum. “As organizations continue to adopt AI, they need to understand critical success factors and have access to leading practices. The market leadership of EY in AI, analytics and advanced technologies will play a pivotal role in achieving these goals.”

“As businesses look to transform and reinvent, a growth mindset towards data and AI is critical,” said Dan Diasio, EY Global Consulting Artificial Intelligence (AI) Leader. “EY teams are thrilled to be working with the AI Forum to help accelerate the implementation and adoption of AI across the enterprise.”
