If you are on Employment Pass, and need advisory about Singapore PR application, then Epica Immigration can assist you. Epica can review your application, documents and advise you on steps to increase your chance of getting PR status in Singapore.

Immigration and Checkpoint Authority, which grants PR to applicants introduced a completely new e-PR system few years back. As a result all applications are done online. Many people find this process overwhelming and complicated.

Commenting on the development, Mr. Joshi, the founder of the Company, noted – Every Year ICA grants roughly 25000-30000 PRs. But the actual number of applicants (which is not disclosed by ICA) can be well over 70000. More and more people are interested in applying Singapore PR but the slots are limited. With Covid restrictions, the numbers are expected to reduce even further.

Using a consultant for PR application was not a norm say 10 years back. You could apply on your own. However now there are many applicants and the places are limited. So using a legally expert consultant is a must now for PR application in Singapore.

Epica Immigration has a Significant Experience in immigration, PR application and Citizenship application field. Its founder has previously worked in paralegal field for many years. He has successfully handled many immigration cases.

Epica 18 + 5 Point – Power Cheker

For every PR and Citizenship application, Epica Immigration uses is proprietary 18 + 5 Point Power Checker System. There are 18 points of check which must pass before your application is submitted and there are additional 5 points which should be evaluated to highlight your profile to ICA in a positive way.

This point based system is designed by leading legal experts with significant experience in immigration matter. Moreover these checks are embedded in the IT system of Epica Immigration. So unless application passes all these checks it can not be submitted to ICA.
